

Description of classes, attributes, and operations of Kili Trekker System

isAdmin: This class is responsible for running, checking and managing secure logins from users who want to access the system. If the output is TRUE, they can have full access as read, write and delete to the system. If the output is FALSE, they only have read access.

- Attributes: bool isAdmin || reads in accounts IDs. Determines whether to give read access, write access, delete access to user, returns true or false
- Operations: bool isAdmin = false || read access